THE KEYSTONE AFFAIR.

Bardsley Contradicted by the Postmaster General.

A NEW STATEMENT MADE PUBLIC.

In Which the Defaulting Treasurer Makes Further Charges Against Wanamaker and Includes a Couple of Eminent Editors in His Imputations.—The Postmaster General, Bardsley, and Also His Explanation of Matters Developed in the Investigation Since He First Gave Testimony.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The Bardsley investigating committee held another session yesterday at which Postmaster General Wanamaker attended and testified concerning his transaction with the Keystone bank, and a statement made by ex-City Treasurer John Bardsley to Editor McWade, of the Ledger, was made public. Outside of a reiteration of the statement he made to the court this latter statement goes into the question of Mr. Wanamaker's alleged connection with the Keystone bank and makes a number of charges. Bardsley says that Marsh told him that Wanamaker demanded $100,000 for the over-issued stocks which he held and, not getting it, upset the plan for re-organizing the bank. It was not until Wanamaker was threatened with counsel prosecution that he gave up the stocks.

Another Charge Against Wanamaker. Bardsley also said that Marsh came to him in March, 1890, and said that Wanamaker wanted $200,000 advance, and when Marsh said he did not have that amount, Wanamaker "told him where he could get it," presumably of Bardsley. The latter therefore let Marsh have the money, and Wanamaker got it. Bardsley also charged that Col. McClure, of The Times, and William Singletary, of The Record, were implicated in a deal—political and commercial—by which they were to profit by getting gas stock, etc., for value received in way of advancing certain deals.

Wanamaker Again on the Stand. Postmaster General Wanamaker, who had entered the room while Bardsley's statement was being read, then stepped forward and requested that he be allowed to testify. "I have," said he, "been anxious to appear ever since the question was raised regarding the stock of which I previously testified." In answer to questions he said that his interest in the Keystone bank arose out of his acquaintance with President Lucas and his brother when they were young merchants. He stated that he never pledged the over-issued stock after he was told it was an over-issue, and it was out of his hands at the time. He did not know H. Y. Yard, and had never met Mrs. Lucas but once, and that was at an interview about the over-issued stock.

Bardsley's Story Absolutely False. He was asked to give an account of what transpired between him and Marsh at Washington and did so, stating that Marsh asked him to assist the bank and he declined, saying matters must take their course. Mr. Wanamaker said that the balance of his firm in the Keystone bank at the time of the run was $10,000, and when it closed it was much larger. The last money received from the bank was about a year before the run, and the last discount was obtained in October, 1890. As to the story told by Bardsley that he had threatened to close the bank unless he paid the over-issued stock, and that he had been forced to turn it, Mr. Wanamaker said that was absolutely false.

THAT OTHER OVER-ISSUED STOCK.

The Postmaster General Tells What He Knows About the Same.

Granville B. Haines and Samuel B. Huey came to Washington to see him about the over-issued stock, and he told them that they must settle for it, and that if they did not, justice to himself and to the public would require that he should inform the comptroller of the currency. After the bank closed he gave up the stock. Bardsley's statement that Marsh obtained from him $200,000 for Wanamaker in March, 1890, he said was absolutely untrue, and without the slightest foundation, and invited the committee to inspect his books. Mr. Wanamaker was then informed by a member of the committee that the book of the Keystone bank they had found 3,200 shares of stock in his name in addition to the 2,515 shares which he testified had been given him by Lucas to use as collateral for a loan in the building stock.

Part of it Held as Collateral.

"When I appeared before this committee before," said Mr. Wanamaker, "I confined myself principally to the business of the firm in my dealings with Lucas in regard to the stock. I had in my head certain private matters but did not suppose the committee wanted to hear of private operations." Mr. Wanamaker then again referred to the 2,515 shares which he had held as collateral, and said the committee was to learn that he had turned over to the Lucas estate. That some of those shares had been at one time in his name he did not state, as he had not used them in any operation. In regard to the stock which had been found in his name 635 shares of it, Mr. Wanamaker said, was held by Irvin and Toland, his bankers, as collateral.

Accounting for the Other Shares. This reduced it to 2,000 shares of stock. Of these, five blocks of 200 shares each were dated March 3, 1888, and while issued in his name the power of attorney had never been indorsed by him, and they could never have been sold. Of these shares he had absolutely no knowledge. The next lot, five blocks of 200 shares each were dated four weeks earlier, Feb. 3, 1888. He was a director in the Grand Trust Co., and Lucas came to him and asked him to obtain him a loan of $40,000 on the stock. "I have been just foolish enough," said Mr. Wanamaker, "all my life to do those things, and I got the money on the stock and gave it to him. A considerable time afterward it was found out by the Lucas estate and they got the stock back."

A Scheme of President Lucas. Mr. Wanamaker also presented the committee with a letter from John I. Lucas, dated May 28, 1888, inclosing a check to pay the interest on this loan. "Of the other unused five blocks of stock," said Mr. Wanamaker, "my impression is that Mr. Lucas at first intended to ask for a larger loan and so issued them. It was never used, however, as it could not have been without my indorsement. I know of no other stock, but I remember that ten years ago when Lucas was securing control of the bank and of the home, he said he did not want people to know who certain stock belonged to and for a time he placed some in my name." In closing his testimony Mr. Wanamaker read letters from Comptroller Lacey and Assistant Secretary Nettleton to show that he had never influenced nor delayed the appointment for an instant of a receiver for the Keystone bank.

CO-OPERATION IN THE ALLIANCE.

The Georgia Branch Engaged in a Big Scheme.—That Wheat Corner. ATLANTA, Ga., July 11.—Great changes are, it is reported, to be made in the management of the Alliance exchange of Georgia. The scope of the central exchange at Atlanta is to be greatly enlarged. Co-operative Alliance stores are to be established all over the state. The whole machinery, so it is alleged, is to be supplied by a New York syndicate. The New York syndicate is said to be backed by $100,000,000. Its charter is not yet perfected, nor its name given to the public. It is to supply all the Alliance stores and exchanges, unless some other concern starts up that can undersell it. It claims to be able to secure superior rates of transportation. It is to have a sort of branch office in Chicago, which is to ship bacon, corn, etc., to the farmers of the south.

Charges It to the Speculators.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 11.—Jerry Simpson was in the city for a short time Thursday. He attributed the circular reported to have been sent out by the Farmers' Alliance, questioning members of the order to hold their wheat until the market price reached $1.25 per bushel, to the bulls on the Chicago board of trade. He added that the Farmers' Alliance was engaged in "an impracticable scheme." Such a scheme, however, was undoubtedly suggested last winter and an organization of farmers for the holding of their wheat for better prices was started in the warehouses was advocated by Frank McGrath.

PROOF AGAINST JUDGE LYNCH.

A Texan Who Had a Nook That Was Choke Proof.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The World prints the following dispatch from Milan, Tenn.: A Texan named Garrett Hume died here on Wednesday of strangulation. His death was caused by the action of a device which he adopted years ago to outwit Lynchers. Hume was a herdsman on a ranch south of western Texas eighteen years ago. He soon became a rich rancher. The conclusion that existed between his acquisition of wealth and the disappearance of cattle belonging to others caused an agitation that resulted in his disappearance.

Put Up a Job on the Judge.

He went to Galveston, where he had a silver tube inserted in his throat. Then he returned to his ranch. In a short time the lynchers caught him and left him hanging to a tree. He was not as dead as they supposed, but got away and began operations in another part of the state. A second hanging proved a failure. The first and he went to the Mexican border. A third attempt came near proving effectual, for the lynchers left guards to watch him, but a negro cut him down next morning and he escaped to Mexico, whence he came here several years ago.

MOST MIRACULOUS RESCUE.

A Brave and Level-Headed Engineer Saves His Own and a Child's Life.

CONCORD, N. H., July 11.—As a freight train Thursday afternoon was going west from Pittsfield on the Suncook Valley railroad, the engineer, Charles J. Hutchins, saw, a short distance ahead, a little child on the track. It being impossible to stop the train before reaching the child, he went forward to the pilot in the hope of grasping and rescuing the little one. A sudden lurch of the locomotive threw him on the road bed and the locomotive passed over him. The engine knocked down and passed over the child, who also, who, when discovered by the engineer under the moving train, was attempting to crawl out between the wheels. Hutchins, hanging to the under side of a car, reached through the track frame, caught the child and, holding it carefully, was dragged by the train until it was stopped. The child was unharmed, but the engineer was slightly bruised.

A Newspaper Man's Knowledge.

CHICAGO, July 11.—William F. G. Shanks, of New York, is a guest at the Auditorium hotel. He has been connected with The Tribune of New York for some time, and is a correspondent of the New York Herald. Referring to the McClure-Nicolay controversy he said that of one thing he was sure, and that was that Lincoln knew of John's disappearance as early as October, 1890, and knew thereof upon the most undoubted testimony. He also said: "I think Colonel McClure will find he is in error as to Nicolay's closeness to Lincoln." Editor South Brooks, of the New York Advertiser, or John Hay, of Washington, would be among the best authorities on that point. Colonel Hay was undoubtedly close to the president.

Grasshoppers in New Mexico.

KANSAS CITY, July 11.—Henry Smith, of Springfield, N. M., is in this city. In an interview Thursday night he said that the grasshopper pest in New Mexico and Arizona was becoming serious. Mr. Smith owns large ranches in New Mexico and Arizona. He says the grasshoppers have stripped them of nearly every vestige of vegetation, and have done great damage. Other cattlemen, he says, make the same complaint. The pests work their ravages in spots varying in size from a quarter square mile to four miles square. Mr. Smith says the pests are moving slowly eastward, and by fall will reach the Kansas and Texas lines.

No Peace Talk in This Speech.

PARIS, July 11.—M. Ribot, the minister of foreign affairs, Thursday delivered an address on the occasion of the inauguration of a new line of railway to Montreuil-sous-Bois. In speaking of the foreign policy of the republic, the minister said that it was inspired by absolute confidence in the strength of the country, and unfaltering reliance upon that spirit of national unity which formed the proper basis of the grandeur of nations. "The new country," M. Ribot said, "the country is in danger, party divisions must disappear." A tremendous outburst of applause greeted this sentiment.

Long Distance Electric Railway.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 11.—Articles of incorporation have been prepared in this city and yesterday were sent to Madison for the organization of the Inter-State Electric Rail way company. The new company announces it intention to build and operate an elevated electric railway between Milwaukee and Chicago. The line will carry only passengers and mail, and is expected to run eighty-five miles an hour.

WILL NOT RUN SECOND.

Gray Not a Candidate For the Vice Presidency.

SURPRISED AT WHAT MR. RAY SAYS.

The Ex-Governor Thinks the Indiana Editor May Have Been Incorrectly Reported.—Appearances Indicate That the Nomination for President Would Please Mr. Gray—Women Vote at an Election at Ramsey, N. D.—Other Political Items.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 11.—Ex-Governor Gray was shown the New York dispatch which represents Scott Ray, of the Shelbyville Democrat, as being cast on a mission, the purpose of which is to secure the nomination of Hill and Gray as the Democratic ticket for 1892. In this dispatch Mr. Ray is represented as quoting Governor Hill to the effect that he is a candidate for the presidency; also as telling Ray to see that the Indiana delegation are instructed for him, and that he will do the rest. Being asked the meaning of this, Mr. Ray is further quoted as saying that it means the nomination of Hill and Gray for 1892. "I have no agent," Governor Gray said, "I have no agent. Mr. Ray has been friendly to me, and has often spoken very kindly of me in his paper. I think he has also been very friendly to Governor Hill. Formerly he frequently spoke favorably of Governor Hill. 'Has he not lately done the same?' was asked.

"Well, I haven't noticed it lately. Mr. Ray, as I say, has always been my friend. I do not think he has been correctly reported. I believe he would be for Indiana. I am not in combination with any candidate for president, and will not be." In the Field for President. Governor Gray continued: "I am not a candidate for second place on the ticket with any man, for I am not a candidate for vice president at all. I am reluctant to believe that Governor Hill said what the dispatch attributes to him. Don't you think it would be assuming a good deal to put me in the place of the ticket? I am not in combination with any candidate for second place? No, sir; I am not a candidate for the vice presidency." There was a perceptible accent on the first syllable of Gray uttered the word "vice president." This, with the well known fact that the ex-governor is in operation a full fledged newspaper bureau of his own, leaves no doubt that he is in the field for the presidential nomination.

ILLINOIS WOMEN VOTE.

They Cast Ballots in an Election on School Bonds at Ramsey.

RAMSEY, Ill., July 11.—At an election held here Friday for the purpose of voting bonds with which to erect a school building for a juvenile department five ladies embraced the first opportunity of being in this city to exercise the right of suffrage. There was little interest manifested in the election. Only 83 votes were polled. Some of the women present at the polls characterized the voting of women as an improper thing. Some suggested the ladies ought to be at home attending to their domestic affairs. Others, however, congratulated the women on their first appearance as voters.

Defeated the Project.

The project to build the school house, however, was defeated by a vote of 64 to 19, the chief reason not being that the erection of another building for juvenile purposes would necessarily result in the erection of a larger and more suitable school building. It is generally supposed that of the five ladies who voted two voted against the project and three for it—about the way their respective husbands voted. The Australian ballot system was not observed.

Only a Fake.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 11.—President Frank McGrath of the state Farmers' Alliance, who arrived in the city Friday night, pronounced the report that the Farmers' Alliance had sent out a secret circular appealing to its members to hold their wheat until it would bring $1.25 per bushel, a fake pure and simple. He said: "If such a circular had been agreed upon, I would have known about it, for all of the state Alliance kept one another advised of every important move, and surely the national office would have known of it. I am sure it had taken such a step."

Must Be a Free Coinage Man.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The state intends to have a presidential candidate in 1892 favors the free coinage of silver, even if we have to put up a "Plute Indian," said Senator Stewart of Nevada Friday. "Do you expect to elect your pro-silver Plute candidate?" "That is another question. We will run him through, no matter what takes place."

"Do you count on the support of the Farmers' Alliance?"

"We will have a candidate and he will get the votes."

Must Keep an Eye on Russian Jews.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Assistant Secretary Nettleton has instructed Acting Superintendent of Immigration, O'Brien, New York, in view of the publication of a fact in foreign newspapers that destitute Russian Jews are being sent to the United States at the instance of officials of foreign governments, to exercise special care in their examination. The matter, he intimates, may become the subject of diplomatic correspondence.

The Population of Wisconsin.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The census of Wisconsin has been issued by the population of Wisconsin by minor civil divisions. The total population of the state is 1,640,880, an increase of 371,880 over 1880. During the decade five new counties have been formed. Of the sixty-eight counties in the state seven only show decreases, the largest being in Fond du Lac county, with a decrease of 2,771.

The President Will Go to Vermont.

BENNINGTON, Vt., July 11.—President Harrison has formally accepted the invitation to attend the Vermont state centennial celebration to be held here on Aug. 15, and as soon as the treasury department Friday purchased 426,000 ounces of silver at from $1.05 to $1.08 per ounce.

WOULDN'T TRUST THE TRUST.

A Notable Decision of Interest to the Business Community.

ST. LOUIS, July 11.—Judge Dillon rendered a decision Friday which is of much interest to the whole commercial community, and may have a material bearing in the future in determining the nature of securities for estates and funds held in trust, as also bonds for persons holding positions of responsibility. It is a well known fact that trust companies are being largely made up of as a means of security for estates in the hands of executors and administrators and as surety for officials in place of bondsmen.

The Judge Preferred the Bank. Judge Dillon overruled a motion Friday to take a fund of $600,000 which is being held subject to the court's order out of the bank, in which it is at present, and place it with trust companies. In passing on the matter Judge Dillon said, without reliance on the trust companies, that he would not permit a fund in charge of the court to be placed with any of these outside institutions which he knew nothing about, without having ample additional security.

"STOOD OFF" EARLY'S CAVALRY.

Reunion of the Cavalry Who Saved Washington Twenty-Seven Years Ago.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The veterans of the Twenty-fifth New York cavalry had a reunion in Washington Friday to commemorate the fight at Fort Stevens, just north of the city, twenty-seven years ago. Upon the occasion the "Slicks and Greys," as they are called, kept back Early's brigade from entering the national capital until reinforcements came to its aid and Early was beaten back after a severe fight. The veterans organized by electing Lieutenant H. M. Nevins, president; I. Warren Bullins, secretary, and John H. Wolf, corresponding secretary and treasurer. There was not much done beyond a general talk over old times. It has been decided to meet here again next year. There are about 250 survivors, but not more than fifty are here.

DROWNED IN LAKE ERIE.

Four Members of a Sunday-School Pledge Party Fled Watery Graves.

CLEVELAND, O., July 11.—The Miles Park Sunday school of this city gave a picnic at Oak Point, a Lake Erie summer resort, Friday. John Henderson took Isabel Henderson, aged 22, and Ella Henderson, aged 12, his nieces, with John Starkman, aged 23, and Lillie Chowdhury, aged 12, out in skiff for a pleasure ride.

Frightened by a Roller.

When a short distance from the shore a big roller broke over the boat, and the frightened occupants sprang to one side of the boat, overturning it instantly. All were drowned except the elder Henderson, who clung to the bottom of the boat until rescued.

Just Like a Bad Penny.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 11.—About fourteen years ago a resident of this city disappeared suddenly, leaving his wife and several small children. Time passed on and nothing was heard of him and it was supposed he was dead. A few years since his wife married again and has lived very happily with her second husband. This morning, however, husband No. 1 walked in and asked for breakfast as unconcerned as though nothing had happened. It is claimed that he, too, has been married since he left, and the result of his return to his first wife is watched with considerable interest, as the family stands high in the community.

Michigan Forest Fires.

SACIT, S. M., Mich., July 11.—The entire wooded portion of Chippewa county and the Canadian territory north of it are on fire. Settlers are being burned out and everybody is fighting the flames. Detroit, Bay Mills, Gattsville, Raber, Wellsburg, Scammon Cove, and many other places are in imminent danger. At Detroit the people have their households effects packed ready to take to Lake Huron by boat. There has been no rain for over three months and the country is in a singular condition to that during the drought of 1880, when hundreds of people perished all through the north.

Wants Uncle Sam's Protection.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The state department has received a letter from Thomas H. Davley, Jr., dated Guatemala, in which he appeals for an investigation of the alleged persecutions he has been subjected to in that country. In his letter he states that while carrying on a legitimate business in Flores, he incurred the displeasure of certain government officials and was thrown in jail, his property seized and he was subjected to the most cruel and degrading treatment. He also says that his appeals to the United States ministers have been ignored.

'Twould Be a Big Racing Event.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Monmouth park and the Brighton Beach racing associations are both very much interested in an effort to bring together the best handicap horses now in training in a sweepstakes at a mile and a quarter or a mile and three-eighths. At present there is a heavy promise that such a race will be made, and the talk is that the entries will be Tea Tray, Loontaka, Tenney, Longstreet, Riley, and Don.

Noland Gets Two Years.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 11.—The jury in the Noland case returned a verdict at 9 a. m. Saturday. The defendant was found guilty and his punishment assessed at two years in the penitentiary. His attorney at once filed a motion for a rehearing. The jury took but two ballots. The first ballot stood: Ten for conviction and two for acquittal. The second ballot and verdict was reached at an early hour Saturday morning.

World's Fair Chiefs Confirmed.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The board of control of the World's Columbian exposition Friday confirmed the nominations of James Allison, of Cincinnati, as chief of the department of manufacture, and William A. Smith, of Chicago, as chief of the department of transportation.

Blow One Man a Hundred Yards.

LEBANON, Ky., July 11.—The boiler of a sawmill exploded on the Level Woods, in Laurie county, Thursday evening, killing one man instantly, blowing him 100 yards, and mortally wounding another. The mill was a complete wreck and the explosion was heard for miles.

Big Increase in Price of Silver.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The treasury department Friday purchased 426,000 ounces of silver at from $1.05 to $1.08 per ounce.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE.

A Conservative Feeling Now Prevalent in Business.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

More Satisfactory Reports Received as to Crops.—The Sugar Market Growing Steady.—Money Plentiful Everywhere.—Agricultural Implements in Great Demand.—Dullness in the Anthracite Coal Trade.—The Iron Industry.

NEW YORK, July 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The unusual conservatism which prevails in nearly all sections and branches of business impresses many as a most disheartening symptom. But it may, with at least equal reason, be interpreted as the very best ground for confidence in a healthy and solid improvement when new and large crops come forward more freely. The absence of speculative excitement, the indisposition to buy in haste, are having a most wholesome influence.

Prices of materials and products are thus kept in such a relation that a large and fairly profitable business is possible, but will be based upon the actual demands of consumers and not upon inflated hopes. This conservative attitude is the more necessary this year because while money is now abundant here and there, the possibility of disturbance abroad, or of difficulty in obtaining needed supplies for moving crops at the west is not yet entirely removed.

Satisfactory Crop Reports.

Crops reports have never been more full than they are this year, and they grow more clearly satisfactory. The spring wheat every day, improving also as to other grain and cotton. Wheat declined 2 cents during the past week, notwithstanding exports fully as large as a year ago, but immediate demand for corn has caused a rise of 1 1/2c, and oats are quoted higher. Sales were but moderate. Pork products are a shade lower; coffee unchanged, and oil about a cent lower, with the very little activity in dealings. The very little activity in dealings. The market for sugar has been weaker, but grows steady, and refined is in better demand. The general course of prices has changed but little during the week. Tin has declined a shade through speculation at London, and lake copper sells at 19 1/2 cents; the half year's production by 15 companies being 25,000 tons, against 35,700 tons last year. Lead is weaker at 4.40 cents, with some realizing.

Trade in Different Cities.

Reports from other cities show a waiting trade on the east coast, and a spring throughout the west, and general dullness at the south. Boston reports a little more activity. Manufactured iron at Pittsburgh is in better demand and the coal output in June was the largest known. Trade is fairly good for the season at Cleveland and also at Cincinnati, where new buildings for the first half of the year exceed by $500,000 the record last year. Wool is moving better at Detroit and iron is in fair demand. At Chicago wheat receipts are three times last year's and there is an increase in flour and corn, and trade in dry goods, clothing and shoes exceeds last year's, with good collections. Receipts of other grain, cured meats, dressed beef and lard fall behind last year, and crop reports are very favorable, all indications pointing to a large trade in the future.

An Encouraging Outlook.

At St. Louis the trade in wool, grain, produce and live stock is good, but lumber and the building trades are dull. The outlook for fall trade is very encouraging. Milwaukee reports some sensation caused by failure of the largest grain commission house. At Minneapolis trade is very good for the season, the flour output being 140,000 barrels. At St. Paul, Omaha and Kansas City crop prospects improve trade, and at Denver business is fair. Some increase is noted at Louisville, but at other southern points dullness prevails, and at New Orleans, though slight improvement is seen, the tactics of traders are extremely conservative. The midsummer closing of iron works almost suspends the trade, and the best brands of pig are in short supply. Others are hard to sell, and Alabama No. 1 has been offered here at $16. No activity is noted in rails and not much in manufactured iron, and it is thought that early resumption by the works will cause a decline in prices.

Decline in India Rubber.

The anthracite coal trade is dull, the average price for June at Schuylkill mines being $2.22 per ton against $2.24 last year. Wool moves slowly at New York, buyers taking only for actual needs, and in western goods some improvement in orders is observed, and a greater feeling of security for the future. The trade in flannels is strong and healthy, and in knit goods very satisfactory. Agricultural implements, the supply of machinery is ample, and the makers are buying iron largely. India rubber has rapidly declined, consumers refusing to buy from the syndicate, which is carrying an immense stock, and it is thought the new supplies arriving in October will prove too heavy for it.

Business Failures.

The building trade is on the whole less active than a year ago, though at Chicago an increase of 7 per cent is noted. At Chicago and other northern points generally the supply of money is ample, though at the west there is more demand than heretofore. At southern points the markets are close as a rule, though only firm and in fair supply at New Orleans. The business failure throughout the country during the last seven days numbered 247, as compared with a total of 287 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 197.

Four Missouri Banks Go Under.

NEVADA, Mo., July 11.—The Citizens' Bank of Nevada closed its doors Friday and with it three other banks in the county—the Bank of Sheldon, All Bank of Walker, and the Bank of Cincinnati, as chief of its control—passed into the hands of a receiver. The capital stock of the Citizens' bank is $100,000, but with all four there was only a paid up stock of $68,400. No statement of assets and liabilities has been made. Depreciation of value and withdrawal of deposits is given as the cause.

Got Beyond Her Depth at Lake Erie.

CHICAGO, July 11.—While Lynn Enyard, the 13-year-old daughter of a widow of Laakeville, Ill., was bathing with a number of other children in the lake at Lake Bluff, Friday afternoon, she got beyond her depth and was drowned. Three of her playmates narrowly escaped the same fate, being rescued by some boys in a boat.

He Investigated.
"Keep away from that," said a restaurant keeper to an Irishman, who was standing in front of a newly arrived box of turtles, holding his finger in evident pain. "What are you doing there anyhow?" "I was investigating." "Investigating what?" "I was trying to see which was the head and which was the tail of the turtle over there in the corner of the box." "What do you want to know that for?" "I've a curiosity to know whether I've been bit or stung, but I think the best thing to do is to see Bob Ferguson and take out an accident policy."

Several Accidents.
A team of horses driven by James Ratcliff became unmanageable yesterday on Water street, near Prairie, and the result was a serious accident. The wheels of the wagon ran along the street car track and frightened the team. Mr. Ratcliff was thrown from the wagon and was dragged by the reins some distance, sustaining an injury to the left hip and elbow. He was carried to the home of his son on East Herkimer street, where Drs. A. L. and Naomi Pierce-Collins dressed his wounds. Several sticks were taken from his elbow. His horses were cared for by friends.
W. R. Dickerson was killed in the face yesterday at the home of J. E. Braden, of Beardale. His nose bridge was broken. Dr. Catto went out and dressed the wound.
Wilhelms, 14 year old, was badly used up while in a hay field on Thomas Scroggins place, near Harrison town yesterday morning. He was on a wagon, driving a team of mules. One of the mules kicked him, and knocked him off when he fell under the wheels. The wagon in passing over him broke his leg between the knee and hip. The boy was a guest of his uncle, G. W. Abbott. He brought the lad to the home of Noah Abbott, at 330 South Water street, where the boy resides. There Drs. W. J. and Cass Chewneth set the broken knee.

THE ACTORS' BENEFIT.
A Trastesty on Justice as Administered in Decatur.
The self-styled "Remnants of the New York Dramatic company," took a benefit at the opera house last night. The whole affair was conceived and executed within 24 hours, and the public had only 12 hours notice. Therefore it was not strange that the attendance was small and that the performance dragged considerably. Everybody was goodnatured and the audience showed their sympathy for the unfortunate position in which these ladies and gentlemen of the stage had been placed by a heavy and plausible at the numerous references to their late predicament. The principal feature of the program was the farce:
"TO THE COUNTY JAIL."
Time—recently. Place—not far off. (All rights preserved.)

Trouble Should be Made.
Word has been sent to this office that somebody has dumped a dead horse in the river at Cowford bridge, one and a half miles from the waterworks. The horse is said to be the land of W. O. Deschbach. Somebody should make trouble for this other somebody that put the horse in the river. It ought not to be hard to find law enough to inflict severe punishment on any one who contaminates a water course like the Sangamon river. A city depends on it for its water supply, and one dead horse so near the pumping station is enough to do great damage. There is typhoid, and malaria, and diphtheria enough floating around town, ready to seize on the weak and young, without breeding any disease germs.

Great : Clearing : Sale.
It is still going on and the people are taking advantage of their opportunity. The prices on Ladies' Oxfords take the wind out of all prices quoted for a like quality of goods. Our prices are in no instance higher than the net wholesale figure, and in many instances the retail price we quote you is less than the cost of manufacture. Our Ladies' Dongola Button Kid Shoe at is a hummer. We are not going to carry any of these summer goods over the hot weather and that's the reason for the prices we make. Better buy now while you can get your pick of a large stock.
ONE DOLLAR PER PAIR

Franklin Priest Conveyances.
Springfield State Register.
Denunciations were heard yesterday by Judge Allen in chambers in the United States district court, to the bills filed by Michael F. Egan, assignee of Franklin Priest, bankrupt, of Decatur, now deceased to set aside alleged fraudulent conveyances made by Franklin Priest before filing his petition in bankruptcy on Sept. 14, 1889. Michael F. Egan, of Decatur, represented the complainants, and Hon. Hugh Crea & Ewing, of Decatur, the defendants. No action was taken at present on the denunciations.
Should Look Out.
All dealers in cigars should read the law in regard to their sales. Section 2,602 of the revised statutes of the United States says that cigars must be sold to the customers direct from the stamped box. A dealer who takes out a handful and lays them before the buyer to choose from, or a saloonkeeper who brings a customer's cigar on a plate or in a glass, violates the law, and becomes liable to a fine of $100.
Plastering.
Workmen have been carrying plaster up stairs in the city hall the last two days and putting it on the wall where the windows were lately blocked up by the new building. The city hall will now have to be repaired and fixed up generally, to make it correspond with the new spots.
Died in New Jersey.
Mrs. E. E. Crana, who resided at 449 East Prairie street, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at Centerville, N. J. She left Decatur about a month ago for a visit there. Her husband, who is a carpenter in the Washash shops, joined her there a week ago. She leaves several children.
A Good Animal.
Fred Baldwin bought a handsome buggy mare from Frank Powers yesterday, consideration $300. The mare was sired by Regalia, and her first dam was by Hambletonian Chief. The mare is a beauty, and can go in less than three minutes. Harry Himmelfrucht made the trade.
Died.
At 789 East Wood, at 7 p. m. yesterday, Joseph, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Rheinhardt Lunkuler, of congregation of the synchod. Aged 1 year, 6 months and 25 days. The funeral will take place from the German Catholic church Monday morning at 8 o'clock.
Get a Contract.
Contractor John G. Sheen, of the Decatur Brick and Tile company, has got the contract for building $10,000 worth of brick street paving at Mattoon. He expects to finish the work this fall. His bid was $1.98 per square yard. He will use Decatur brick for the upper course.
Real Estate Transfers.
Frederick Mattes to Theodore Winkler, six acres in Blue Mound township; $350.
Joseph Michl et al to Mary Sites, two lots on Dorenda streets; $150.
Always Ahead.
You can buy ladies' dongola Oxfords, patent tip, machine sewed, sole leather, counter flexible inner sole. A good one made for service and durability. We want you to come and see our stock and learn our prices when you want a survey. THE SPENCER & LEHMAN CO.

Blockading Waiks.
Mr. Editor—Contractors and builders blockade the walks and obstruct the most shamefully. A day or two ago on Prairie avenue, where F. M. Young's new residence is being erected, a stonecutter planted his barrel in the center of the walk, and chipped away. A flying stone hit me on the forehead and nearly knocked me down. That night, going home after dark, I fell over a pile of sand on the sidewalk and got up all covered with dirt, and with some badly cut feet. There have been no time been lights out there to warn people that half the street was taken from the purpose for which it was intended. Let's have some building ordinances and have them enforced.
Cure.
W. R. C. Work and our Home Officers.
EDITOR REVIEW—As a friend and member of the W. R. C., I have several times visited the office of the state president, Mrs. Mary A. Bradley, and secretary, Mrs. Edie R. Kennedy, and am surprised at the amount of work these ladies are accomplishing. Bearing in mind the fact this order is increasing in numbers, and growing so rapidly, the president's many and varied duties have been completed to date in a most satisfactory manner, we having the pleasure of reading letters from Chicago and other cities complimenting the same. The state secretary was found very busy going to the county fairs, and attending to national headquarters. Mrs. Kennedy is capable of doing the work very rapidly, as was manifested this quarter, she having ten days less time to consolidate this immense report, and forward to the national, on account of the national convention, convening at Detroit earlier this year. The seemingly hundreds of reports with their complication of figures, necessitating careful examination, were all in proper form, and the report "a thing of beauty in its neatness." Mrs. Kennedy carried off the prize for the best penmanship at Hall's business college, Logansport, Ind., a few years since, afterward filling a position as clerk for the Washash railway at Peru, Ind. The W. R. C. is to be congratulated upon having such capable officers for president and secretary. A FRIEND.

Illinois Central Talk.
C. A. Holt, assistant superintendent of this division of the Illinois Central, was here yesterday clearing up the week. It is all out but two or three cars. About that Mr. Holt said: "The estimate of $250, I find was a little too low. It should be about $300, or perhaps $350. This is about all the company will have to pay to put the cars in good shape. The one you would think was damaged the most, can be put on the track for $75. It was the most fortunate wreck in the world. The cars were all empty, and old."
About the depot, he said: "A road with 3,000 miles of track, must of necessity have a good many depots. It is not kind, and of course it will take some time to get around to all of them. Decatur needs a depot, of course, and so does Bloomington and Chicago. Look at the depot there as soon as it can. It would doubtless do that at once if it could get the ground."
Mr. Holt continued that the Central considered Decatur one of the best towns on its line.
They Will Camp.
A delightful camping party will pitch their tents Monday on the banks of Lake Kretzer, eight miles west of Decatur. John A. Barnes will chaperone the party. Archie Wilson has unanimously been elected captain. They will enjoy about 10 days fishing, hunting and visiting tennis and croquet. They have selected Wednesday and Sunday as visitor's days. They have engaged a boat which they will take out and put on the lake. Those who will camp are Misses M. J. Judy, Grace Wilson, Elizabeth Mills, Mae Waggoner, Nora Troutman, Mable Miller of Blue Mound and Messrs. Paul Smith, Oscar Dawson, Will Freeman, Oscar Mueller, Harry Hamsher, Walter Keeler and Archie Wilson.
One Stable.
The Standard Trotting company's horses left yesterday for Kenosha, Wis. From there they will go to Milwaukee. In this stable were Aliz, Ten Strike and Pontoon.
Must Be Sent Back to China.
WASHINGTON, July 11.—Assistant Secretary Spaulding has written a letter to the collector of customs at Detroit, based upon an opinion of Attorney General Miller in which he says that when Chinese come to this country from Canada they must not be sent back to Canada under any circumstances, but be shipped direct to China.
In Memory of Sir John Macdonald.
TORONTO, July 11.—A meeting of the leading citizens has resulted in a decision to erect a pedestal on which a statue will be placed with allegorical representations of the provinces of Canada, as a memorial of Sir John Macdonald. The estimated cost of the memorial is $50,000.
Chicago Has 6,000 Saloons.
CHICAGO, July 11.—Six thousand saloons have been issued by the city for the present quarter.

THE CAMPMEETING.

AN INTERESTING TALK BY AN INTELLIGENT INDIAN.

He Describes His Experience as an Indian. Describes the Indian Character, and Suggests a Solution of the Indian Question. Program for Today.

There were interesting meetings all day yesterday at Oakland park. At 1 o'clock the question "Is Non-Resistance a Success?" was thoroughly considered. Rev. G. L. Miller, Rev. Knipfle and Rev. S. F. Gibb thought it almost a waste of time and effort.

A. L. Gettys took the position of a republican prohibitionist, which elicited a pointed query from Mrs. Harrington, of Lincoln. A. F. Smith favored temperance effort all along the line.

In the afternoon P. A. Burdick, the New York temperance evangelist, delivered a fine address on "Personal Responsibility," which was an effective plea for total abstinence, prohibition and political action.

At night there was music by the Jingles and an address by Rev. H. E. Emmett, of Ohio, who is a son of a chief of the Algonquians and lived in a wigwam until 12 years of age, when he was placed in a school and finally graduated. His Indian name is "Wesmen."

His discussion of the origin of the Indian, his customs, social life and the injustice to the aborigines was of thrilling interest. The Indian, he said, is not an angel, but keep the rascally agent and the whisky away and he will make a decent citizen. It is an unwritten law among the Indian that the seduction of an Indian girl is punishable with death at the hand of the nearest relative. There is not an oath in the Indian language. He believed in the immortality of the soul and the great love of the son for his father and of husband for wife is very great. He quoted from government reports to show that of a thousand treaties made with the Indian but one has been kept by the government.

The Indian problem is hard to solve because they have lost faith in the white man. The Indian he said could not become a citizen. The speaker discovered that in New York by paying taxes he could vote. He finally bought a little dog, paid the tax and became an American citizen. He said he would solve the Indian question by giving the head of every family 100 acres of land for 30 years, give them franchise and education, and place the uncivilized under the control of the militia. Give the Indian rights in courts.

The lecture was a great literary treat. In concluding he sang an Indian song composed by an Indian girl.

SUNDAY PROGRAM.
Song service at 10:30. Organ and cornet accompaniment. Sacred Solo. Miss Neal Hawkins, Chicago "Steal Away" Jingles Quartet. Invocation. Jingles Quartet. Singing Sermon. Rev. H. E. Emmett, Ohio. GOING TO DETROIT.
Decatur likely to be well represented at the National Campmeeting.

An event in Grand Army circles that is being talked about by the "vets" in Decatur, and has considerable interest to the citizens in general, is the national campmeeting at Detroit, the first week in August. It is likely that a number of Decatur people will be there. It is desired especially that a large representation of the new Society of Old Post One should be present. Some action will undoubtedly be taken in regard to the Memorial hall, and a big delegation of the survivors of the first post might make it more favorable. The local Memorial hall committee, consisting of F. L. Hays, J. M. Cloney, George R. Steele, M. F. Kanan, and W. C. Johns will be present.

Commander H. S. Clark has issued his order announcing the running of the Illinois official train, to take the Illinois department. The train will leave Mattoon, go to Chicago over the Central, and then to Detroit over the Wabash. The plan now discussed is to have a special car go from Decatur and be coupled to the official train at Mattoon. It is thought as many as 50 will want to go from Decatur. The Illinois Women's Relief Corps will have headquarters at Detroit during the campmeeting. Mrs. M. A. Bradley and Mrs. Effie R. Kennedy, the department president and secretary, who reside in Decatur, will go on the official train.

The Illinois Woman's Relief Corps, has by the way, begun to discuss plans for helping in the Memorial hall work. Worthy assistance is promised from that body, which does nothing by halves.

The first remittance the local committee has received from a local corps of the W. R. C. came yesterday from a corps in Minnesota. It was accompanied by a good sized remittance from the Grand Army post in that town. The local committee receives remittances every day from posts in all parts of the country.

Painting.
D. H. Clayton yesterday finished painting the water works house, inside and out, ceiling and roof. The station now looks like a gem on a Sunday afternoon who expects to go walking with "somebody."

The city is going to paint all the electric light towers and the iron part of the drop lights, at once. The painter must use a brush, too, and not a sponge as the last man did. The color has not been selected. The committee is talking between red and black. It might be suggested to that committee that this administration is not in the habit of painting things red, and it may not be advisable to begin now.

The Singing Pilgrims.
Philip Phillips, "the singing pilgrim," will be at the opera house three nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 23, 24 and 25. He gives a fine lecture finely illustrated by songs and pictures. It is an entertainment unlike anything heretofore offered.

LA PLACE HAS A SENSATION.

A Case that Equals a London Society Episode.

La Place is excited. It probably never had such a sensation as that which now shakes society from top to bottom. Decatur last night around 10 o'clock, a wealthy farmer who lives near there, and a Miss Mann were arrested for adultery. They gave $400 bonds, and yesterday the case came up before Justice Fleck. The whole male part of the town turned out and heard the evidence.

The witnesses were two of the grown sons of Mr. Howard, and two of his hired men. States Attorney Hicks, who prosecuted the case, wanted to put Howell's wife on the stand, but D. C. Corley, of Decatur, who appeared for the defense, objected, and kept her off.

The story of the case as told by all the witnesses, was that Howell brought Miss Mann to Decatur a short time ago, and introduced her into his family as a domestic. He has been spending his winters in Georgia and Florida. It was not long after the young lady's arrival that Mr. Howell became very much in love with her, and wrote her letters that might be termed wholesale shipments of affection, so fervent and ardent were the protests of undying regard.

Some of these letters fell into the hands of the sons, and they were introduced in the trial. The young men testified that after Miss Mann had resided under their roof a few weeks, the head of the family, who was the defendant in the case with the young woman, left his wife's bed and practically shared the girl's apartment who was thus exalted from the position of domestic to head concubine, or something of that sort. The neighbors, of course heard of the matter, and that got the case into the courts.

The case was not finished yesterday afternoon when the informant left LaPlace for Decatur.

The character of Mr. Howell is painted in the darkest colors by his neighbors. The most serious crimes are laid at his door by them. He is 50 or 60 years old and has several grown sons and daughters. The girl is young, comparatively, and not bad looking. She did not have many chances to display on the trial yesterday, and clearly was not inconvenienced by a great quantity of modesty.

GO T OFF EASY.
Thomas F. Coffey, of Champlain, Does Not Pay a Fine.

Thomas F. Coffey, a saloon keeper from Champlain, came to Decatur to witness the race and lost all his money except 25 cents. He then got gloriously full and was locked up by officer Stober. Yesterday morning he put up his $100 watch for security, was released and informed that he could have the watch when he paid the $8.30, being the amount of the fine and costs. He then went to Mayor Chambers and represented that Officer Stober had sent him to ask to be released. Officer Stober says he did not send him and that Coffey lied on him. The mayor sent him to the marshal as the proper person. The slip of paper containing the charge against Coffey, or "Pierce" as he had given his name, had blown off the marshal's desk and lost. He supposing he was no charge, got up the watch and Coffey went home yesterday without paying his fine.

Wanted a Policeman.
A man by the name of Walton, formerly a brakeman on the Illinois Central railroad, rushed into Cobb's restaurant at about 3:30 yesterday morning, and very excitedly informed where he could find a policeman.

The night clerk informed him and he accompanied the officer, a certain Chicago detective, who is watching "sleepers," picking pockets, etc., to a place near the tray factory on the Illinois Central tracks, where they found a man lying by a tree. This man was well "loaded" with Decatur whisky. Walton gave testimony yesterday morning which convinced the authorities that there was a bad man running around nights. The man tried to get Walton to help him rob the drunken man, who had $15.50 on his person. Walton refused and attempted to arrest the man alone but was unsuccessful, hence his call for assistance.

Joe Powell's "Weasel."
"Come here, Fleck, quick," yelled Joe Powell from the City restaurant last evening. Officer Lawrence placed his hand on his belly and started for the scene of the supposed disturbance. He found Powell at the foot of the staircase in the basement. "Come down and help me kill this weasel," said Powell. The officer went down and together they approached the weasel. All of a sudden there arose an odor from the animal so penetrating as to nearly knock the two men down. "That weasel's a polack," shouted the lawyers as both men grabbed their noses and started for the top of the stairway. The boys, then set down and laughed at Joe's weasel until the animal had ceased hostilities, when the officer slipped up to it and put a deadly bullet through its head.

Talked for a Monument.
Dr. G. W. Bryant, colored minister with a voice as big as the hotel rates at a summer resort, made a speech last night in Lincoln square in the interest of the $150,000 monument that is to be erected in Jackson park to the memory of colored soldiers in the rebellion. He did not get enough light to enable him to quit work, though he had a good talk, told a few stories, and drew a big crowd. When he began speaking the people began running toward him from blocks around. He had a voice that would draw better than a fire, with the new steamer on the side.

Absorption of the Dimes.
The absorption of the dimes by the little dime saving banks still continues. The demand for the mints for this denomination of coins is unprecedented, and last month the director of the Philadelphia mint, which has hitherto coined all the dimes, had to call on the institution at New Orleans to help out. What an object lesson in the art of saving money these little banks have provided! If so easy to save dimes, why not quarters and halves and dollars?

Good Use of a Hatchet.
A Tuscola telegram says: George D. Barnett, a well known citizen of Newman, in Douglas county, was on Thursday evening dangerously wounded in the leg by Mrs. Emma Girdwin, a dressmaker of the place. It is alleged that Barnett went to her shop and attempted to embrace her and make improper proposals. She resented and used a hatchet with such effect that it is thought Barnett will die.

STRAY SCRAPS.

H. Post has gone to Chicago on business. The Citizens National bank has a new sign that is a beauty.

The P. D. & B. will have an excursion from Peoria to Decatur today. Severson cars of tobacco went through Decatur last night enroute to Liverpool. Grain Inspector Wiley inspected 13 cars yesterday. The total for the week was 98 cars.

Wren Howard is at work again in James Hollinger's barber shop after an absence of some months.

The people of Illinois township will vote next Tuesday on a proposition to build a $5,000 school house.

Prof. C. M. McClelland left yesterday to attend the prohibition camp meeting now in session at Pittsfield.

John C. Ruddick, of Argenta, and Hue Ruddick, of Missouri, were calling yesterday on Decatur friends.

To the preachers today: In behalf of your congregations, who would die before they would go out. Cut it short.

The seven actors realized $300 clear from their "benefit" entertainment last evening. About $50 were taken in at the door.

The Juvenile Temple of Sargent's Chapel will have a seable at its lodge room, 607 South Broadway, Wednesday night, July 15.

Hon. J. M. Taylor, of Taylorville, is arranging plans for a 10 room residence, which he proposes to erect at Taylorville to cost $5,000.

J. G. Shea was at Danville yesterday to talk with the street carmen who are figuring on paying their track with brick. No arrangement was concluded.

A farmer named Miller lost a $125 horse yesterday. It dropped dead in the harness on Marietta street. Overheating is supposed to have been the cause.

Bishop Turner, of Georgia, and Rev. Henry Brown arrived in Decatur yesterday from Springfield to take part in the A. M. E. campmeeting at Riverside park.

A bullet was shot through a large plate glass front window that is being put in the new Chamberlain residence on North Union street. The damage was probably done Friday night.

Danville Press: The Decatur people who have secured the contract for paving North street will begin work in a short time, which will open up another avenue of employment for any of our citizens thrown out of work by the mines shutting down.

A poor fellow, who was crazy as the result of a protracted spree, created some excitement in the postoffice alley yesterday by making terrible threats against humanity in general. He had a brick in one hand. Officer Brockway locked him up in the county jail.

Actor F. W. Poe was seized with another fainting spell last night at the conclusion of the performance at the opera house. Dr. E. J. Hill was called and gave him relief. The actor was suffering from congestion of the brain, brought on by excitement and trouble.

Earle Bartholomew and Thordie Ewing returned home yesterday after their horseback ride over the central part of the state. They visited Springfield, Jacksonville, Lincoln, Bloomington, Pekin and Peoria, and though somewhat fatigued look better than when they went away.

A committee of the county board of supervisors has been at work all week getting ready a report on the equalization of taxes in the county, to report to the board at the meeting on Tuesday. The committee has decided to recommend changes in the assessed valuation of nearly all the townships.

MUST RUN IN THE FAMILY.
William Crawford, Sr., Makes an Attack on His Wife.

Officer Miller was called yesterday afternoon to the residence of William Crawford, on East North street, back of the shoe factory, by a report that he was killing his wife. Crawford is the father of the William Crawford who was hung last March. He went home drunk yesterday afternoon. That is a frequent occurrence with him, by the way. This time he varied the usual custom, by getting into a quarrel with his wife who is long suffering, and as patient as possible under the circumstances. This time the domestic discussion got warmer than usual, and Crawford got the butcher knife and made an attack on his wife. She screamed, rushed out of the house, and alarmed the neighbors. Word was sent to Officer Miller, and he soon had old man Crawford locked up in the Short street station, where he is now.

Two Fines.
Henry England, who assaulted James W. Edwards, was fined $3 and costs yesterday by Justice Curtis. This is the second time Mr. England has paid for this offense. The other was to Justice Hammer.

Daniel Russell, for a plain, ordinary, everyday drunk, without any trifles or ruffles, paid Justice Provost the regulation fee $3 and some dollars and cents to help the justice buy saraparilla.

A. M. E. Campmeeting.
The A. M. E. campmeeting will close tonight at Riverside park. Today Bishop Turner, D. D., L. L. D., of Philadelphia, W. D. Johnson, D. D., of Athens, Ga., and Hon. Geo. W. Bryant, M. D., of Chicago, will make addresses. The last named gentleman will tonight at 7:30 deliver his lecture, "Anvil Sparks." Services will be held at 10 and 11 a. m., 2:30, 3:30 and 7:30 p. m.

To Bridge the Ditch.
Douglas County Review.
The highway commissioners of this township have the stone on the ground ready to construct the piers for three iron bridges over the stream near town, when the dredge boat passes. It will require 100 tons of stone for the bridges, at a total cost of $1,200, while the iron work costs $1,850, making a total cost of the bridges complete of $3,050. One of these structures is on the road leading west, one near Fraham's, and the other south, leading to Greendale Driving Park.

PROSPERITY MAY BE INCREASED.

Industries That Want to Come and May Be Secured Far Decatur.

A number of first-class enterprises desire to come to Decatur. Many big manufacturing institutions in the east have discovered that to build their western trade, they must come west. In looking for a location, naturally they select Decatur. Its well known advantages present themselves to them at once, and the town's reputation for business activity makes them feel that it is the place to locate. They feel that in Decatur they will reach the success and prosperity they seek. With bonuses and inducements of all kinds offered them, however, by scores of other places, it is but natural that they should feel tempted to pass the unexampled facilities for carrying on business here, and go to towns with less natural advantages, but more cash to give towards the moving expenses.

The smaller concerns that have written different business men in Decatur in relation to coming here are numerous. There are a few large ones that would at once add greatly to our city's commercial importance and prosperity. One manufacturing firm now employs 300 hands. It would come here and guarantee the start to employ that many, and eventually employ 500. The expense of moving and putting up new buildings would be about $25,000. The company want that much as a bonus.

Another institution is a batch of five or six allied industries, which altogether employ 500 or 600 men. They want to be located in Decatur, but want buildings that would cost about $35,000 and require that $50,000 stock be taken in the company.

Paying such bonuses as these are well paid out of the question. Although giving that much capital outright would be a good investment for the city, as a whole, the individuals have not the money to give away that way. Our business men see too many opportunities for investment themselves.

There is a method, though, by which the money can be raised, and these big institutions secured. That method is the selling of lots. It is not a new plan. It has been tried by several cities, and always with success. Aurora gave a $50,000 bonus to a stove factory, got an institution that employed 1,000 men, and made money besides.

A number of men form a syndicate, buy a good tract of land, and reserve a part for the factory. The rest is platted and sold in lots to the citizens, or to any who want to buy. The lots always sell well. Lots of almost any kind will sell in Decatur.

The certainty of a demand for these lots is to be created in that immediate neighborhood adds to their value and the desire for them. The money realized from the sale of the lots not only pays for the land, but pays for building the factory, and moving it. The addition to the business of the city soon makes the land worth much more than the price paid for it. While they may have bought to help secure the industry, they were at the same time making an extremely good investment.

There are good industries that would be glad to come to Decatur. We have good land to be platted in this way. We have the business men to put the scheme through. Are any public spirited enough and enterprising enough to do it?

An Unusual Case.
Officer Stober found a man lying in the alley back of the cracker factory last night. He was a plain drunk and the officer started with him for the lockup. When the fellow was roused up he was so surprised and alarmed to find himself in the hands of an officer that it immediately sobered him up, and the officer was compelled to let him go at the door of the station house.

TRACK AND TRAIN.
William Grosi, engineer of the 15, is still off suffering with pleurisy. George Badenhausen is again firing on the 391 after a lay off of several days.

T. W. Douglas, passenger director at the depot, spent Sunday with his family at Peoria.

Tommy Thomas came over from the Springfield hospital yesterday. He is still very thin, and suffers greatly with his injured arm, but he seems to be out of reach of old grim death, who was getting mighty close to him a few days ago.

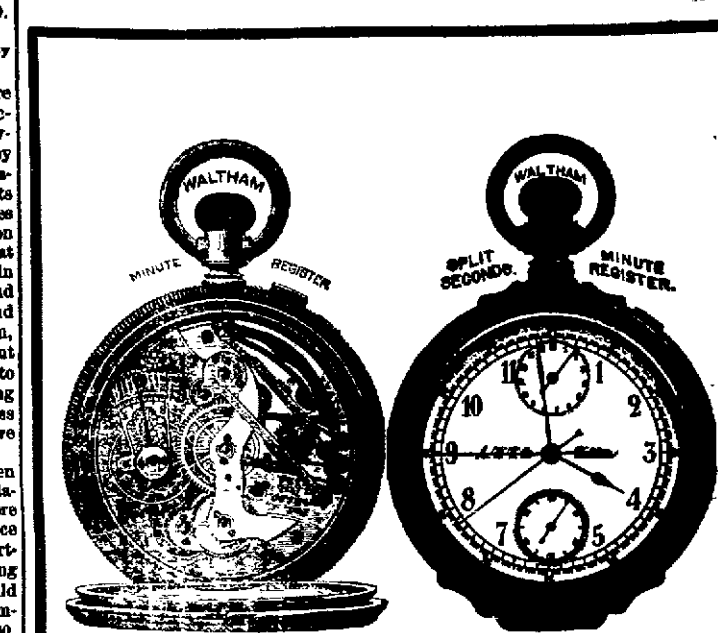

Ed Sullivan was handling a revolver in the Wabash hospital at Springfield on the Fourth, when it went off. The bullet went through Ed's hand, and lodged in the coat of Tommy Thomas, who was in the cot, and the ball would have been in him if its force had not been spent.

M. J. Conighlin resigned his position last Friday as Illinois Central agent at Centralia, to accept the position left vacant by the resignation of John Heffernan at Champlain. The next day after he arrived in Champlain he resigned the place, and is now clear out of a job and of the good graces of the company after 22 years of faithful service. He gives the same reason for giving up the place as did his predecessor, Mr. Heffernan: Twice as much work as should be required of one man and poor quarters for doing business. It is thought the company will find it difficult to get a man for the place.

The Wabash road is building a freight house at Hannibal, Mo., which will cost upward of $20,000. It will be of brick and will be 230 feet by 55 feet. The front will be the office end and will be two stories high.

This same road is erecting a handsome hotel, dining hall and lunch counter at Moberly, adjoining the new $30,000 depot constructed there. The dining hall and lunch counter will occupy the ground floor, while upstairs will be sleeping rooms, so that travelers waiting for trains can sleep there until the time for their arrival.

It Was the Best.
While there were a great many people in the city during the races, they came to have a good time and not to buy goods, consequently trade was dull. Still there is one firm in town that was as well supplied last night. When a Review reporter dropped into their place of business and inquired for news, "I know," said a member of the firm, "we have sold more goods this week than we ever sold in a single week before, and you can see in your paper in the morning. There was not a day during the whole week but what we had all we could do, which shows that the people are coming our way and we are making every effort to give them a benefit. We have a practice of selling everybody as low if not lower than any other firm in the city, and one thing we always have done and will continue to do, is to sell one person just as cheap as another. We are here to stay and sell goods. While we don't want to do it all, we want to do our share and by keeping the best goods in the market and selling them at the lowest living prices we know we can do it." THE REVIEW takes pleasure in saying the name of this firm is May & Churchman, the liberal grocers, 311 North Water street.
